JANUARY 2015

VOLUME 87 NUMBER 1

Greeting Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On Christmas, we as Christians with our own special traditions and as a community of Christ with its own distinctive customs celebrated the glorious birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We shared our Christmas cookies, presents, and cheer with neighbors and loved ones. We enjoyed the closeness of family and friends as we gathered for a Christmas meal. Through this sharing of love, we have also shared our faith in community. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, our sharing of faith and love brings the story of Christ's birth to life in our hearts and minds. When I say, "Brings the story of Christ's birth to life," I truly mean to LIFE.

We may have felt an unexplained chill travel through our body. It may have been an overwhelming feeling of joy or happiness as we watched a child open a present. We may have felt the Holy Spirit move within us as we heard a song by the choir or maybe when we sang our favorite hymn. It may have happened when a familiar verse from Scripture or a prayer was read. It may have been during our Christmas program as childhood memories flooded our thoughts.

The important thing is this, God made God's presence known to us and there is no greater feeling than God's presence. And that my sisters and brothers is something special to pass along to our family and friends. So let us share our experiences with God with each other and pray that God will continue to make God's presence known to each and every one of us as we move forward on our journey of faith together.

The year 2014 is now a part of Zion United Church of Christ's history. As we look back and remember the special moments, let us give thanks to God for we are truly blessed.

Now we probably have already begun to ponder what is in store for us in 2015. But before we get too far ahead, let me suggest that we all approach the New Year as a child—a child of God. To do that we begin by asking one question, "How can I live each day as a child of God?"

The answer is to look through the window God provides for us in the life of God's child, Jesus Christ. You see, Jesus is a child of God and so are we. So let us pick up our Bibles, let us give thanks to God, and let us ask for God's help as we read and learn how to be one of God's children.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Steve
